Mr Marsden

Well done to Year 11 pupils who have successfully completed practical Mock Exams this week. For those of you who are still waiting to get started with the written exams next week – it is nearly time! Please make sure you find space for a break this weekend and I look forward to seeing all of you here, on time, for the RE exam on Monday morning. I also want to thank Miss Newsham for leading your assemblies this week with her really moving, and personal, story of 'Mo'. As we begin the weekend please do reflect on the question she asked you at the end... who is your 'light'? And how can you make sure that person knows special they are to you?

Have a great weekend. Enjoy the football tonight if you will be watching!

Mr Marsden
