SVP Lenten Promise Kits

The SVP team will be bringing Lenten Promise kits to your forms for every pupil to keep with your timetables. Think about what you need to give up, and also what you could do to help others and write one thing down on each card and keep them in your timetable wallet.

Remember how much lightness we can bring into the school by the good choices we make this Lent.

Wednesday 1st March - Finch House Mass for the Feast of St. David (Patron of Wales)

Father John will celebrate this Mass for us on Wednesday afternoon to begin the period of Lent in the Hall from 1.35- 2.25pm. The following students from 11 Cottam must attend the Finch House Mass next Wednesday as they missed the Cottam House Mass last term owing to DofE commitments. Grace Cox, Emily Douglas, Oliver Fallon, Miranda Green, Erin McGlue, James Sergeant.

Pupils are to register in form and be sent directly to the School Hall to be supervised by Paula

Mr Marsden

I am writing after one fantastic performance of Narnia: The Musical in the school hall, with another one to come tonight. I don't want to jinx anything by saying too much... but I can't wait for tonight's performance and look forward to saying more about it next week! On a more negative note, I have received some complaints this week from people who live in the local area about the behaviour of some of our pupils in the community. If you travel on the Number 17 bus, visit the bus stop and shop at Saltcotes, or visit Booths after school, please ensure your behaviour represents the school as well as possible. I know almost all of you do this all the time anyway, and I am very grateful for that. Finally, please do keep in mind the theme I talked about in assembly this week.... Who are your 'enemies' – the people you find harder to get on with, or perhaps are unkind to you? Try, as Jesus asks us, to actively love them – through being patient, generous, careful with your words, and by praying for them. This may not sound easy or natural, but this is what makes us different in a Catholic school.

Have a great weekend. Good luck tonight everyone!
